

EPA's Role at Ft. George G. Meade

Remedial Project Manager: John Burchette

My Background

● Professional Experience

● EPA 2007-Present

● Remedial Project Manager

- Ft. George G. Meade
- Navy Ships Parts Control Center, Mechanicsburg PA

● Environmental Consultant 2005-2007

- Report Writing
- Soil Borings
- Well Installation

● Education

● M.S. Geoenvironmental Studies-Shippensburg University- 2005.

- Publication: The Wiconisco Canal Revisited

● B.S. Earth Science

● B.S. Environmental and Geosciences

EPA's Ft. Meade Project Team

- Remedial Project Manager-John Burchette
 - Toxicologist-Jennifer Hubbard
 - Hydrogeologist-Bruce Rundell and Ryan Bower
 - BTAG-Katie Matta
 - Attorney-Elizabeth Lukens
 - Community involvement Coordinator-Bill Hudson

Federal Facility Agreements

- Negotiate and sign FFA's
 - Sets deadlines
 - Establishes process
 - Establishes timeframes
 - Detailed Schedules in the SMP
 - Spells out the dispute and resolution process

EPA's Role in the Ft. Meade Cleanup Process

- Scope/Investigate Sites
 - Scoping meetings
 - Review Draft Reports
 - Provide guidance on EPA regulations
 - Sign Records of Decision
- Oversee cleanup
- Consider beneficial reuse
- 5-Year Reviews
- Special Issues
 - MMRP etc...
- Site Construction Completion
- Eventual deletion from NPL

EPA's Role at Ft. Meade (cont.)

- Emerging Contaminant
 - PFOA-PFOS
- Other issues
 - Change in toxicity factors
 - Vapor Intrusion
- Community Involvement